

AS TO Meadow Gold Butter

No better evidence of its superiority is necessary than the well known fact that numerous other brands imitating as nearly as may be in their names and style of package, the popular "MEADOW GOLD" make their appearance from time to time in the butter market. Thus far, however, none have been able to stand the test of continued excellence so freely accorded the object of their aspirations and it is very likely that those who will be satisfied only with a first class article, will continue to send their order to Word has reached here from Norfolk, Neb., that the Al Ritchie Frontier show, advertised to begin a tour of the country in that town, proved to be a hoax. As a result thirty circus performers are stranded, among them B. R. Daniels, a bronco buster of Las Vegas. Ritchie, the promoter, fled.

COURT OVERRULES MOTION TO RE-OPEN JUDGMENT

This morning Chief Justice William J. Mills overruled the motion to reopen the judgment in the case of Charles Ifield Co. vs. Perfecto Jaramillo and Nabor Ortiz, case No. 6565, San Miguel county. Charles Ifield Co., some months ago secured judgment by default against the defendant, Perfecto Jaramillo, for the sum of something over $2,000, the other defendant, Nabor Ortiz, having moved to California. A short time afterwards, Jaramillo moved to set aside the judgment. The hearing was had on the 16th day of July, 1909, Attorneys E. L. Medler, of Albuquerque and W. J. Lucas of this city appearing for Jaramillo and Louis C. Ifield for the Charles Ifield company. Affidavits were submitted by both parties to the suit, and the cause was ably argued by counsel, and today the court filed an order overruling the motion to reopen the judgment.
